

PAOLO BUDINICH CURRICULUM

P. BUDINICH, emeritus professor in theoretical physics, graduated in 1938 at the Scuola Normale of Pisa, was with Abdus Salam, a Nobel Prize winner and cofounder of the International Center of Theoretical Physics (ICTP) in Trieste in 1964 under the flag of U.N. Further he founded the Fondazione Internazionale Trieste (FIT) which promoted the birth of the international institutions devoted to the transfer of the scientific knowledge in the Developing Countries. Such multidisciplinary complex of scientific institutions well known as: Trieste System, is considered a unique model of the Third World Scientific cooperation, which more than 40 years of positive experience.