SECOND SOUTH SUMMIT JOURNAL

General information

Transportation for delegates

All transportation will be provided for participants of the Second South Summit between their hotels and the Sheraton Conference Centre to ensure the attendance of all participants at the various activities included in the official Summit programs. Transportation desk is available at all hotels.

Accreditation and registration

Admission to the Sheraton Hotel will require the presentation of a security badge, issued to delegates upon registration. To obtain this badge, participants should contact the registration and accreditation office as soon as they arrive in Doha. The office is located in the Exhibition area, adjacent to the Sheraton Hotel and is open daily between the hours of 08.00 and 22:00.

Information desks

Badges are non-transferable and must be worn at all times. Information desks have been set up in every hotel and throughout the Sheraton Conference Center. The main Information Desk is located in the adjacent lobby of the Sheraton Hotel.

Government Protocol Office

The Protocol Office of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs is located in the Exhibition hall building, next to the Sheraton Hotel, transportation is available from the Hotel. The arrival and departure dates as well as airline flight numbers of Heads of State and Government and Heads of Delegation should be communicated to the Protocol Office.

The protocol office emphasizes that no weapons will be allowed inside the Dafna hall. Contact fax 4435870, 4831071.

Documentation

The official documents of the Summit will be issued in Arabic, English, French and Spanish: Doha Declaration and Doha Plan of Action.

Documents for circulation or display must be given to the Documents Officer at the Documents Counter, located outside Al Dafna hall. The Secretariat of the Summit is responsible for the circulation or display of all documents.

Texts of statements will not be distributed in the Plenary hall in accordance with procedures at the first South Summit. Delegates wishing to have speeches distributed to the pick-up boxes should provide sufficient copies.

Additional copies of all official documents can be obtained at the Documents Distribution Counter.

List of Speakers

For inscription to the list of speakers, please contact Ms. Mary Chehab and Mr. Vincent Wilkinson in the office of the Summit Secretariat, Office 9/10.

Please refer to note verbal by the Chairman of the Group of 77 (N-051/2005), circulated in New York, dated 21 May 2005 regarding the list of speakers, which is reproduced on the following page:

NOTE VERBALE FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE GROUP OF 77
REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE LIST OF SPEAKERS

N-051/2005

The Chairman of the Group of 77 in New York presents its compliments to the Permanent Representatives of the Member States of the Group of 77 to the United Nations and with reference to the Second South Summit to be held in Doha, Qatar, from 12 to 16 June 2005, has the honour to inform following the announcement made at the ambassadorial meeting held on 20 May 2005 in New York, that the official list of speakers for the general debate in plenary will be established as follows:

- Requests for speaking slots for the general debate of the Heads of State and Government should be sent directly to the Summit secretariat in Doha beginning from Tuesday, 24 May 2005 (Doha local time), at the following fax number: 00974-4431482.
- The official list of speakers will be established on a first-come first-served basis, taking into consideration precedence in the speaking order and the date and time of receipt. Requests for inscription in the list of speakers should contain the full name and title of the speaker as far as possible. In order to facilitate this task, it is suggested that delegations kindly preserve a copy of the transmission record of the faxed request.
- Statements should not exceed five minutes for all speakers.
- Heads of State and Government will be given precedence in the speaking order.
- Exchange of speaking slots by delegations will be possible. In the case of equality of rank, a delegation would move to the exact position of the other delegation. Otherwise, the delegation will be moved to the last position in the appropriate category. Should the level of representation of a delegation change from the highest category to any other category, the speaker will be moved to the last position in the appropriate category.
- The preliminary official list of speakers will be made available in Doha on 12 June 2005. No information will be disclosed by the secretariat regarding inscriptions in the list of speakers prior to the issuance of the preliminary list of speakers in Doha.
- Starting on 12 June 2005, official written requests may be submitted in person to the Secretariat of the Summit in Doha.
- There will be no list of speakers for the Ministerial Meeting (interactive dialogue).

The Chairman of the Group of 77 in New York avails himself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Representatives of the Member States of the Group of 77 to the United Nations the assurances of his highest consideration.

New York, 21 May 2005.

Permanent Representatives of the Member States of the Group of 77 to the United Nations
New York, N.Y.

Distribution of statements delivered during the general debate

It would assist the interpreters if copies of statements to be delivered in the plenary could be provided in advance to the Conference Room Officer assigned to each of the meeting rooms.

If delegations wish to have their statements posted on the G77 website, they should provide an electronic version to the secretariat or send it by e-mail to g77off@unmail.org

Interpretation

The official languages of the Summit are Arabic, English, French and Spanish. Simultaneous interpretation will be provided in all four languages during all official meetings. Languages on the Interpretation devices provided in the conference room can be accessed by tuning the dial to the following: 0-floor 1-Arabic 2-English 3-French 4-Spanish

Should delegations wish to make their statements in a language other than one of the official languages of the summit, the Secretariat should be advised well in advance and provide an English translation of the speech, their own interpreter and a speech 'pointer'.

Working facilities for delegations

At the Summit headquarters, in the Sheraton Conference Center, in the corridor leading to Dafna Hall is an area available to all delegations equipped with facilities such as computers, printers, photocopiers with fax, internet and e-mail services.

Bilateral consultations

A limited number of rooms are available for bilateral consultations. Allocation of these rooms will be done on a first come, first served basis. Requests for such consultations should be made from 09:00 to 20:00 by contacting the Meetings and Coordination Office No.10 which is located behind the Salwa Hall. Alternatively contact 485 4728.
